

A close-up photograph of a hand with red-painted nails pointing at a collection of high-pressure laminate (HPL) samples. The samples are arranged on a light surface and include various colors and textures, such as wood grain, solid dark grey, and solid light grey. The text 'HIGH PRESSURE LAMINATE' is overlaid in large white letters, and 'Color Options' is written below it in a smaller blue font.

THE RIGHT COLORS TO REFLECT YOUR BRAND

At Spacesaver, we know that color and texture can impact engagement and productivity, as well as your customers' perception of your business. We work with architects, designers, and our clients to deliver storage solutions that are as aesthetically pleasing as they are efficient.

Contact your local Spacesaver consultant for a free space assessment. We'll help you choose which colors are a perfect fit for your space and your brand.

The swatch materials in this brochure are provided as a color guideline. There may be variation in color, texture, finish and gloss between these samples and the actual product.
